DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 19-30, drawn to a method of film coating.

Group II, claim(s) 31-38, drawn to an apparatus for film coating.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The common technical feature of horizontally holding the substrate; imaging the surface of the substrate; determining directions of patterns based on an imaging result and orienting the substrate in an orientation, determined based on data structured so as to associate directions of plurality of patterns with orientation in each of which a substrate is to be oriented, so that each of the plurality of patterns on the substrate crossing a scanning direction of the liquid coating nozzle; and linearly scanning the liquid coating nozzle relative to the substrate while dispensing a coating liquid is not a special technical feature because it is already taught in the art.

TAKAHIRO et al. teaches holding the substrate horizontally, see figure 9. It also teaches in paragraph [0054], "the wafer W is carried in to the wafer attaching part 23, this method installs CCD camera 7 which is an imaging means so that the surface of the wafer W may be picturized." It further teaches, "rotating the wafer attaching part 23 based on the image pickup result" (determining directions of the plurality of patterns based on the imaging result) (orienting the substrate in an orientation). In order for the plurality of patterns to exist on the substrate the scanning direction of the coating nozzle would have to pass directly over (intersect) the specified pattern spray the fluid. In addition figure 16 shows the liquid nozzle 1 forming a track of resist liquid RE on the surface of the substrate (linearly scanning the liquid coating nozzle relative to the substrate, while dispensing a coating liquid from the liquid coating nozzle).

A telephone call was made to MR. STEVEN WEIHROUCH on 1/26/2010 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
